Job Description

The review judge is part of a three-member Review Department. The Review Department acts upon requests for emergency or interlocutory relief in pending attorney disciplinary and regulatory proceedings and in acting upon matters delegated to the State Bar Court pursuant to rule 9.10 of the California Rules of Court. The duties of a review judge include: reviewing and analyzing the record of proceedings for the State Bar Court Hearing Department; participating in periodic Review Department conferences and in oral argument; and writing both published and unpublished opinions detailing all material findings of fact, conclusions of law and a decision or recommendation for discipline or other appropriate disposition of the proceeding. A review judge must also manage the preparation and decision of the individual cases to which he or she is primarily assigned on an expeditious and efficient basis and must cooperate with the other judges of the Review Department in the consideration and disposition of the Review Department's caseload.

The responsibilities of a State Bar Court Hearing Judge are to hear and decide attorney disciplinary and other State Bar regulatory cases, to make written recommendations to the Supreme Court regarding the imposition of discipline or other appropriate disposition in those matters which require Supreme Court action and to perform related judicial duties. A State Bar Court Hearing Judge is expected to be able to work independently, with limited staff support and to be able to handle multiple tasks in a timely and efficient manner in order to successfully manage a caseload and comply with deadlines. The duties of a hearing judge include: scheduling and holding status, settlement and pretrial conferences; hearing motions; scheduling and holding trials; writing decisions and orders detailing all material findings of fact and conclusions of law; and issuing other orders as necessary. Each hearing judge must manage his or her caseload expeditiously and efficiently.

In carrying out his or her duties, each State Bar Court judge is subject to the administrative direction of the Presiding Judge of the State Bar Court and must cooperate with other judges and court officials in the administration of court business, including preparing administrative reports and attending periodic judicial conferences.

The State Bar Court Review Judge will be appointed by the Supreme Court to a term that will commence upon appointment and that will end on October 31, 2014. The position will be located in either San Francisco or Los Angeles.

The State Bar Court Hearing Judge currently being sought will be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly to a term that will commence upon appointment and that will end on October 31, 2014. The position will be located in Los Angeles.

Review and Rating of Applicants for Appointment

Pursuant to rule 9.11 of the California Rules of Court, the Supreme Court has created the Applicant Evaluation and Nomination Committee to solicit, receive, screen and evaluate all applications for appointment or reappointment to any appointive position of judge of the State Bar Court. Amendments to the standards used to evaluate applicants for the State Bar Court are under consideration and will be adopted in the course of this recruitment. The amendments will focus primarily on expanding consideration of a variety of legal experience in evaluating candidates, as well as consideration of the candidate's ability to write effectively and work independently.
